AAHC Host's Annual Membership Meeting.

member
meeting

On May 19, 2011 the Allied Arts and Humanities Council will host its annual membership meeting. The purpose of this meeting is two fold—we want to meet with our members and hear about your organizations and also we need to elect officers for the coming year for Allied Arts. The meeting will be held in the Parlor of First Presbyterian Church, which is located at 505 S. Dewey. AAHC board members will provide hors d'oeuvres and desserts and drinks so mark your calendars and join us. Call 918-337-2005 to RSVP or with any questions.

Enjoy Bartlesville!

It is that time of year again, when we begin looking ahead to the summer. This summer in Bartlesville proves to be a great one! It seems no matter what your form of entertainment or enrichment is, there is something for you. I have attempted in this newsletter to encapsulate and highlight some of the events that are happening beginning in May and continuing on through August. I encourage you to check out the Chamber of Commerce calendar or the Examiner-Enterprise for updates and additions. This is our time to relax and enjoy many of the benefits our community provides us. Let's all go out and enjoy Bartlesville!

The AAHC office takes a little break during the summer as well, office hours are shortened to Tuesday & Thursday 9:30-noon.

AAHC Award Banquet has been postponed until the Fall. Please send us your nominations for the 40th year of honoring those in our community who impact the arts & humanities!

Bringing Arts & Humanities to Life

The mission of the Allied Arts and Humanities Council is as follows:

In order to nurture and preserve the ideals of education, culture and citizenship, the Council actively supports Arts and Humanities activities in our community.

The Goals of the Council are as follows:

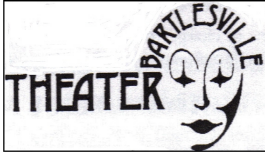

Education/Programming - to ensure that all community members, including students and adults, have opportunities to learn in, through and about the Arts and Humanities.

Awareness - to promote cultural activities in the community through awareness, information distribution, improved access and recognition of achievement

Growth and Support - for Arts and Humanities organizations to be able to emerge, grow and stabilize within the community.

Facilitating and Planning - to facilitate the implementation of cohesive, effective and comprehensive long range cultural affairs, programs and policies for the community.

Love, Sex and the IRS

Theater Bartlesville presents Love, Sex and the IRS, a wild farce with twists of fate, sight gags, mistaken identities and hilarious comic lines. Shows are April 29, 30, May 1, 6, 7. Tickets are on sale at the Theater, 312 S. Dewey, Monday through Friday 12-4. (we are now open all week) .

Volunteer Appreciation has been scheduled for May 21. All volunteers will be honored for their activities at the theater as well as naming the Volunteer of the Year. Invitations will be sent to all members and volunteers.

The last Dinner Theater of the season is June 2 and 3 and will be held at the Theater. Tickets will be available at the Theater in May. Ticket prices remain $25.00 per person. Invitations will be mailed to all members. Call the theater at 918-336-1900 for more information.

JERI SAGER'S BROADWAY

Here comes a treat, Bartlesville!

Jeri Sager has spent a lifetime performing - from her parents' living room to Broadway and all over the world. She shares this experience with you through songs, stories and laughter. Singing the Broadway songs she loves and has performed for thousands of people, Jeri will leave you with a smile on your face and a song in your heart.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear one of the most remarkable divas of our time! The Bartlesville Community Concert Association presents this performance on Tuesday, May 10 at 7:30 pm at the Community Center.

Individual adult concert tickets range in price from $10 - $30. Individual student tickets are $5. Tickets are available at the Community Center Box office, (918) 336-2787 or online at www.bartlesvillecommunitycenter.com.

Bartlesville Symphony Orchestra presents....

The music of the Fab Four comes to Bartlesville! Join the Bartlesville Symphony for their final concert of the season. Seven multitalented singers and players of Jeans 'n Classics team up with symphony and chorus for a full evening of all your favorites. The Bartlesville Choral Society will join with the orchestra and guest soloists as we relive those golden days and rock out to all those great songs. You CAN go home again! Welcome back to the 60's!

Great music played by great musicians — sure to enrapture all who hear! Call 918-336-2787 for tickets.

Price Tower Arts Center Events

Price Tower Arts Center has many events & activities coming up during the next few months. Go to <http://pricetower.org> to view the calendar. One event to highlight is the opening of their new exhibit. May 13 – Opening Celebration of *Once Upon An Island: Twin Towers Rising Photographer Richard Quinney captured the sights, sounds, and workaday life of 1960s Manhattan during the construction of the World Trade Center. A step back in time, this exhibition chronicles the impact of the iconic Twin Towers upon a neighborhood, a city, and later a nation. Member preview from 5:00 to 5:30 pm. General Public Reception and concert 5:30 to 7 pm.

Frank Phillip's Home presents Tangible History

Ever looked at an old item and wondered about its history? Over the next few months the Frank Phillips Home and the Nellie Johnstone Questers welcome you to attend their presentations of “Tangible History”. These programs will focus on the history of household or decorative items and how they were created or used.

Questers embody the excitement of searching for that perfect treasure, the love of learning about antiques, the interest in history, the joy of working on preservation and restoration projects, and take special pride in aiding in the education of Preservationists and Conservators who will professionally care for our history, artifacts, and sites.

The next “Tangible History” presentation is scheduled for Friday, June 24, 2011 from 12:10 to 1:00 p.m. and is entitled “Aunt Helen’s Pressed Glass”. Mrs. Mary Alice Sigmon is the presenter. Subsequent presentations are tentatively scheduled for Friday, August 26, September 23, and October 21.

For more information about the “Tangible History” programs, please contact Kim Goss at 918-336-2491, ext. 104 or fphome@sbcglobal.net.

CHILDREN'S MUSICAL THEATRE PRESENTS “ANNIE GET YOUR GUN”

Children's Musical Theatre will produce Irving Berlin's blockbuster musical, “Annie Get Your Gun” in the Bartlesville

Community Center on July 14-17, 2011. Auditions were held in mid-February, with over 120 promising actors and singers participating, hoping to be chosen for a coveted role in this tune-filled, popular musical! Judges, throughout the week-long process, had a hard time choosing just the right people for the roles,

Chosen to fill the physically, musically, and dramatically demanding role of Annie Oakley is Kailyn Brown. Frank Butler will be played by Blake Holcombe. Everett Tyler will portray Buffalo Bill Cody. Other major actors will be Kaitlyn Quinn as Dolly Tate; William Wade as Tommy Keeler; Peyton Weaver as Winnie Tate; Kellen Watt as Charlie Davenport; Will Kelly as Foster Wilson; Ben Pauls as Chief Sitting Bull; and Jesse Tillman as Mac, the Prop Man.

There are so many other parts in the show that will be played by other students. With all the wonderful drama, music and powerful dancing, this will be a show no one will forget.

CMT wishes to express its gratitude for the support given by the AAHC and the NEA, various companies, patrons and sponsors. The parents are to be applauded for all the volunteer work they perform. For more information, call the CMT office at 918-336-0558.
